LIBERALS GAIN BY CUTTING DOWN LEAD OF LIBERAL PARTY

LONDON, Jan. 22. The flood of Liberal votes continued to flow steadily in the face of the Liberal majority slowly but surely.

A large number of Liberal votes were cast in the country and the right of the government is all but desperate. As the returns continued to come there was little chance for the Liberal party to gain. The Liberal party, however, has a strong chance of winning the election. The Liberal party, however, has a strong chance of winning the election.

When the tallies started, the results of the Liberal party were not so good as they had been. The Liberal party, however, has a strong chance of winning the election. The Liberal party, however, has a strong chance of winning the election.

HAMMERSTEIN IS DEFIED BY MARY GARDEN

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 22.—Mary Gordon was the angriest woman in Philadelphia today. She declared emphatically that she would never again sing in "Faust" for Oscar Hammerstein, and that she would positively refuse to appear in "Thais" on Tuesday night. Her outburst began in her dressing room after the third act of "Faust."
